Use Of Troops.

DECLARE ASSEMBLY STILL IN SESSION

Walton Stands Firm As Klan Adherents Argue
Over Policies.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 27.—Court action against Gov. J. C. Walton will be the next step of the members of the Oklahoma legislature in their fight to assemble for the avowed purpose of impeaching him, it was learned today.

Attorneys for the legislators, who were dispersed from the state capitol yesterday when they attempted to meet with one of the district court of Oklahoma county this afternoon and ask for an injunction restraining Adjutant General Baird H. Markham from using the state military forces against the legislators.

The attorneys for the legislators, three of the foremost members of the Oklahoma bar, were preparing the petition today. A temporary writ will be asked so as to permit the legislators to meet at once without interference on the part of the military.

Hotel Is Battleground
Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 27.—Hotel Skirvin today became Oklahoma's new battle ground. Sixty-seven grim and determined members of the state legislature, who were dispersed at the point of the bayonet when they attempted to assemble "under the constitution" at the state capitol, thronged the lobby and corridors of the hotel declaring that the fight was only begun and that they were not going home until the issue with Walton is settled.

At the same time a hint of possible violence was given by the presence at the hotel of big, strapping special state officers who swagger about their hip pockets bulging. The legislators charge they are Gov. J. C. Walton's "gunmen."

Several fights between the legislators and the special officers already have occurred and serious trouble narrowly averted. Members of the legislature have gone so far as to formally protest to the military commanders that the so-called gunmen have inaugurated a reign of threat and terror.

McBee, leader of the "rebel sixty-seven" who himself engaged in controversy with one of the special officers said the situation is "intolerable." He said the legislators have just begun to fight and insisted that the legislature is still in session.

Governor Walton, however, was just as insistent this morning that the legislature is not in session, that he declared "it's dead, has not met and won't meet." He added that his order to Adjutant General Baird H. Markham stands—"they shall not meet."

House Still In Session
McBee is contending that the legislature is still in session, said yesterday's her daily elected speaker pro tem, in the customary and lawful manner. He said it was dispersed by the National Guard, but it did not adjourn.

"We are still in session and will reassemble just as soon as orderly and civil government is restored in Oklahoma," McBee said.

Two courses were open to the legislators, each one of which it was said they might take.

These were:

1—Having a quorum on hand, and going on the assumption that they are legally in session, they could again attempt to assemble—this time at another place.

2—They will file either in the state supreme court or the United States district court, a petition for a writ of injunction against Governor Walton, forbidding him to interfere with the legislature's attempt to assemble.

Both sides of Oklahoma's greatest controversy today were in receipt of scores of telegrams congratulating and condemning them for their positions. McBee displayed congratulatory telegrams from all over the country. Gov. Walton likewise read to newspapermen a batch he had received in which his stand against the Ku Klux Klan was praised and in which he was urged to "keep up the fight."

Dallas Prison Last Night.

TWO MURDERERS ATTEMPT TO FLEE

Jailer Dies But Guards Kill
Prisoners Making
Dash For Street.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 27.—The death toll of a jail delivery at the Dallas county prison last night increased to three today with the death of Peter Welk, a prisoner, who died in a hospital as the result of gunshot wounds.

The dead, C. E. Gaines, occupant of the "death house," to have been hanged for murder; Willie Champion, assistant jailer; Peter Welk, facing 40-year sentence for complicity in a murder.

The jail delivery had been carefully planned and the prisoners were given outside aid.

When Jailer Champion opened a tier of cells to make an inspection, he was confronted by Gaines, who, both armed with six-shooters.

Champion tried to disarm them. Both prisoners opened fire and Champion fell with bullets through the body. He died shortly afterwards in a hospital.

Other officers, attracted by the shooting, rushed to the jail corridor. A gun battle ensued.

A gun battle ensued. Gaines was instantly killed.

Welk, shot several times, was taken to a hospital, where today it was stated he probably would die.

Prior to the shooting, officials learned a large automobile circled the jail a number of times. The machine, it was believed, was to be used by the prisoners in making their getaway in case the jail delivery was a success.

Where the prisoners obtained their weapons was a mystery. An investigation was under way today.

Gaines had been condemned to die in connection with the robbery of the Jackson street postoffice two years ago when a postal clerk was killed and over a million dollars taken. The money was later recovered.

Gaines' home was in Indianapolis, where his mother lived.

Welk had been sentenced for complicity in a shooting affair near Garland, Tex., several months ago. A deputy sheriff was killed in a battle with prohibition officers during the melee.

PROSECUTOR SAYS WARD SHOT PETERS

Mrs. Ward Pale When State
Attorney Presents Final Arguments.

White Plains, N. Y., Sept. 27.—"Walter Ward surrendered himself thinking he could get something over here, but you can't get away from the fact that it was his finger which pulled the trigger of the gun which killed Clarence Peters," Attorney General Serman declared today in beginning the state's closing argument in the murder trial of Walter Ward, accused of slaying Clarence M. Peters.

Sherman held the "death gun" in his hand, his finger on the trigger, illustrating with oratorical dramatic effect the story of the killing. Mrs. Ward looked pale when she entered the court room, but she said she had a restful night and felt confident she would be able to stand today's ordeal.

In the two weeks of the trial, Mrs. Ward has received more than 2,300 letters from all parts of the country. "Almost without exception, they are from people I don't know—people who have expressed sympathy for me and their belief in Walter's innocence," Mrs. Ward said.

COOLIDGE BEGINS PLANS TO HELP WHEAT FARMERS

Important Conferences
Start And Situation
Is Discussed.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The first of a series of important conferences farm leaders all over the country to which President Coolidge plans with formulae remedial measures for the economic betterment of the agricultural industry was held at the White House today.

A delegation of farmers and bankers from the northwest states, where the most insistent demands have been made for some immediate aid for agrarian relief, urged the call of a special session of congress. They asked particularly for passage of legislation reviving the United States grain corporation, with an appropriation of $50,000,000, which, as during the war, would take over and distribute the entire wheat crop.

The seaplane which the delegation would have modeled substantially along the lines suggested by Secretary Wallace for a government marketing organization, would tend to stabilize the grain market that prices for wheat would increase materially, thus relieving one of the most distressing farm ills, President Coolidge was told.

The recommendations also made by Wallace to the cabinet to lower freight rates on wheat and flour for export and to increase the tariff on wheat were approved and adoption was urged by the delegation upon President Coolidge as further means to alleviate what was termed "the most deplorable agricultural situation which has confronted the country since the World war."

Man Gives Away Child Not His Own By Mistake

Couple Wanted Baby So He Gave Them Child He Thought His Own.

Detroit, Sept. 27.—Two nurses, two fathers and a mother today unraveled one of the queerest stories police declare they ever heard after William Greatrex sought police aid in finding his missing baby, given away by mistake to the wrong parents at Evangelical Deaconess hospital. Eva Viem-minch, 18, and her father, Alphonse, 51, are held for investigation.

Greatrex, whose wife died shortly after the missing baby was born, discovered the switch when he went to the hospital to claim his child.

On August 29 Alphonse sent Eva to the hospital where a boy was born. "When Eva left the hospital we decided to leave the child there because we didn't want my two sons to know," Alphonse declared, according to the police.

"Saturday I stood in a saloon when I overheard one man telling another that he and his wife had married five years but that they had no children," explained Viem-minch. "The man expressed a desire to get a child so I told him if he would meet me at the rear of the hospital that night I would give him my child. Then just before the appointed time, I went to the hospital and asked for my daughter's baby," he continued, the police declare.

"They gave me one that is missing. I met the man who was an utter stranger to me. I gave him the child and he told me that he and his wife were leaving for Pennsylvania that night. In my eagerness to get rid of the baby, I did not inquire as to the man's name or where he was going. I have no idea where Greatrex's baby is. All I know is that I gave the baby to that strange man."

COUNTY IS UPHELD BY SUPREME COURT IN HIGHWAY SUITS

Prosecutor Hanley Emerges
Victor In Legal Battle
At Washington.

SURETY COMPANIES LOSE OVER $80,000

Contractors Failed To Finish
Salem-Winona And Liverpool Roads.

Prosecuting Attorney Jesse Hanley received word yesterday afternoon from the clerk of the supreme court at Washington that that court had refused permission to the London & Lancashire Indemnity company and to the Aetna Surety company to obtain a writ of certiorari against the county commissioners of Columbiana county in the matter of the judgments obtained against the surety companies, as bondsmen for certain contractors in this county who had defaulted in completing road improvements. This means that the judgments and interests on these amounts which will now have to be paid by the defendants, will total more than $80,000.

These cases grew out of the failure of contractors to complete the East Liverpool-Cannons Mill rd. and the Salem-Winona rd. They were first tried in common pleas court of this county and a verdict given to the county commissioners. The cases were carried to the appellate court and the verdict of the lower court sustained. Not content, the defendants then appealed to the Ohio supreme court, and were again defeated. As a final effort, the matter was taken to the supreme court of the United States where the defendants again were defeated by the decision just rendered.

This legal battle, which has consumed nearly three years time, was carried on by Prosecutor Hanley as representative of the county commissioners and he is receiving congratulations for the winning of this important legal battle for the county.

NEW GOVERNMENT FOILS COMMUNISTS

Majority Of Population
Supporting Their Government.

London, Sept. 27.—Alexander Zankoff, premier of Bulgaria, in a telegram today said the peasant revolution has been suppressed.

This message automatically denies reports current in Belgrade and Athens that the Bulgarian premier had been assassinated.

The message follows: "During the Stamboulsky regime Communists in Bulgaria enjoyed many favors from the government. From this tolerance they were able to develop vast propaganda and a most effective organization."

"Following the change of government the new authority was unable to tolerate such machinations. Repeated appeals were made by the Communists to resist the new Bulgarian government with force of arms."

"Thereupon the Bulgarian Communists were arrested and the government took measures to safeguard the security of the state."

"On Sept. 29 trouble broke out at Novazgora, Starazagora, Tcherpan and surrounding districts. It was not grave because there were only a few Communists to take part. Within a few hours the police, with the assistance of the population (who aided the authorities simultaneously and without thought of reward) put down the disorders. The Communists suffered heavily."

"On Sept. 23 new disorders broke out in the mountain districts southwest of Berkovitsa. Communists were able to oppose the government with force of arms. Troops have succeeded in restoring order."

"There was no trouble in Sofia nor in any other large cities but in order to prepare for eventualities the government took necessary steps and proclaimed a state of siege."

"A majority of the population spontaneously came to the aid of the government and opposed the Communist movement, which is now completely checked."

PRESIDENT EBERT NAMES DICTATOR; NATION NEARS END

Country Probably Will Break Up Into Small Nations.

FEAR LAST DAYS OF UNION NEAR

Two Dictators Attempt In Vain To Restore Order.

After slightly more than half a century's existence the German empire, formerly the dominating power of continental Europe, is threatened with dissolution today.

A dictator has been appointed at Berlin to counteract the action of the Bavarian nationalists in appointing a dictator for that state.

The revolutionary movement is strong in Bavaria which is the hotbed of monarchist and anti-Socialist feeling in the German state.

Fostered by outside influences the secessionists in the Rhineland are more active than ever before. It is understood they plan to proclaim a Rhenish republic Sunday.

Unless the federal government in Berlin is able to check the movement in Germany, within the next few weeks, may break up into several small states. Berlin has the advantage of controlling the army and may be able to prevent a national collapse. However, its position has been weakened morally by surrendering unconditionally to France on the reparations issue.

Gessler is Dictator
Berlin, Sept. 27.—Minister of Defense Gessler today was appointed dictator of the German nation with full executive powers. Previously Bavaria had announced the appointment of former Premier Von Kahr as "general commissioner" of Bavaria with full powers of an executive.

One of the first actions of Dictator Gessler was to appoint General Von Lossow of Munich, commander in chief of the reichswehr, in Bavaria. General Von Lossow was relieved of responsibility to the Bavarian authorities, reporting only to Berlin.

"There is no reason for undue alarm," Dictator Gessler said today. "The situation is well in hand. The government has sufficient power and the means to preserve order. Any attempt to stir up disorder or to agitate against the Unity of the German state or against the present republican form of government will be put down ruthlessly."

It was pointed out that the Bavarian the Hitlerites (Fascists). They are under control of Dictator Von Kahr and his associates.

Ebert Issues Edict
Berlin was not surprised over the action of the Bavarians in proclaiming a dictatorship. Everything had been prepared for it and was expected after the federal government decided to surrender unconditionally to France.

Counter measures had already been undertaken here and were in effect within half an hour after news of the Von Kahr dictatorship was received from Munich.

President Ebert has proclaimed "a state of emergency" existing throughout the German nation. He is not a condition of martial law, but simply the application of article 48 of the new constitution which gives extraordinary powers to the government.

ACQUIT ALL MEN IN LIQUOR CASE

Cleveland, Sept. 27.—The federal jury which heard the evidence against Joseph A. Shearer, former federal prohibition director for Ohio; Fred Counts, former federal prohibition agent for Cleveland; Samuel A. Hoskins, prominent Columbus attorney and politician; and Fred Counts, late Wednesday returned a verdict of not guilty on two counts of conspiracy, guilty on two counts of conspiracy to obstruct enforcement of the national prohibition law and the other conspiracy to defraud the government under that law.

Announcement of the verdict nearly 25 hours after the jury received the case was attended by dramatic scenes and spontaneous applause.

A Worthy Cause

THIS morning there was started in Salem and neighboring towns a campaign that will, if successful, place Salem boys on a plane in the Boy Scout movement equal to those in other cities. The object of the campaign is to get necessary funds, and the goal is set at $5,000, for a first class scout council. This council will take the place of the present second class council; a full time commissioner will be employed, and it will be in every sense of the word a first class scout council.

For many years Salem has been in need of more and better scout leaders. Not only that but in need of better scouts. Better scout leaders and better scouts are the result of competent leadership of a scout commissioner giving all his time and effort to the education of leaders for the scouts, and who in turn educate and train the scouts in the best way and in the proper manner. Leadership, citizenship, high morals, rugged health and the finer inherent elements of a real boy's nature are the main things that competent leadership brings out in the scout. Self reliance, the highest ideals, all tending to make the boy into a more successful man, are some of the fruits of the Boy Scout movement.

Citizens of Salem are asked to give to this fund. All the money received will go for the one purpose of making your boy a better and bigger man than he might be otherwise without the proper leadership. A more worthy cause would be difficult to think of. Our boys of scout age are in dire need of leadership more than anything else. To be told in the right way, to be shown in the right way, how things should be done in the wide boy world. Things of interest to the boy are constantly kept before him. He develops a smile that cannot be erased. He develops a sturdy body that is of the best health. His personality cannot be beat. He is a man that his mother and father are proud of. Because they know that their boy is having the advantage of proper contacts, of the best leadership while at play, and while making himself into a real citizen.

The amount asked is small. It will pay large dividends in fine American citizenship. This campaign is worthy of your support.

Famous Ohio Artist
MAX BUEHL, famous artist, had been away from Ohio nearly 40 years when he died a few days ago at Provincetown, Mass., but he never lost his allegiance to and love for the state. During all the years of his artistic success he was proud to be known as an Ohio artist. He was born in Cleveland, educated in the schools there, did his first work as an art student in that historic organization that sent out other men who won fame. The Art Club, long since gone. From the first he gave evidence of unusual ability and developed rapidly under the guidance of men at the Art Club. He was urged to go abroad and in 1887 went to Paris where he was a student under Laurens, Lefebvre and Constant. His first picture was hung in the Paris salon one year after reaching Paris and 10 years later he won the gold medal there. Then he won many other medals and honors and prizes on both continents.

For years he gave much time to mural painting, a field for which his talent and skill gave him special fitness, and in which he won high standing. His paintings are in evidence in nearly all the large galleries, his mural work is seen in many buildings, public and private, in this country and Europe. He was successful financially as well as artistically, and accumulated a modest fortune. His death is a loss to the world of art to which he contributed so much.

Genius!

IT generally is believed that near the close of the World war the United States government had come into possession of a formula for the making of the most deadly lethal gas ever before discovered—an agency for destruction so frightful that its sole possession spelled world domination in the business of war.

There are those who aver that the last supreme and terrible assaults of the German armies were made in the hope of securing a victory before this suspected, feared demon of destruction could be released upon Germany's legions, and that this fear was responsible for the armistice.

However these things may have been, or may be, the fact seems generally credited that the next war will largely be determined by the use of deadly gases. Huge bombing planes will transport this terrible death above cities and armies and loose it at will. At least it is the belief of Mr. Edison that a small group of planes, beyond any question, easily could destroy cities like New York and London within three hours.

Melancholy prospect! And the genius of the nations is being prostituted to the creation of such agencies of demerit! Every nation is at it. The war plane is being developed as a war plane. There is no attempt made to disguise the fact. The chemical laboratories of the world are filled with expert scientists who are discovery of lethal destructive powers bending their utmost energies to the which nature heretofore has denied to man. They will be discovered, and when discovered they will be used.

And we go on talking of love and leagues of peace, of repentance and religion!

Child-birth

WHEN the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined.

An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse, and had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., B-75, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information, every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

WATCHING AN ANIMAL

Meeting an old acquaintance the other day I commented on his youthful appearance, that he seemed unchanged in ten years. In fact I told him I thought he looked even younger than when I had last seen him, just the ten years previously.

"Oh," said he, "I discovered something about a year and a half ago and it has made a wonderful change in my body."

"And what was it?" I asked. "Well I found out that the animals knew more about looking after their not know whether you would call it bodies than did human beings. I do brains or instinct and I don't really care."

However I noticed that when the dog and other animals got up from resting they gave themselves a good stretch. And so when I got up from resting or sitting I give myself a good stretching in every direction.

For instance I tried to stretch over and touch the tips of my fingers to the ground with the knees straight, and at first I couldn't get below my knees. Now watch me!

He stooped over and was able to place the palms of his hands on the floor.

"And so every morning and evening I stretch myself and take three or four minutes exercise. I am a new man!"

What about it?

Nothing really new, nothing startling. Just that this man was observant enough and had sense enough to realize that an animal and the animal knew how to keep its body pliable, therefore he could not do better than follow its example in some respects.

Every kitten or pup, or other animal will run and play and exercise its body, then gradually grow tired, and lie down and rest for a while. Then it awakes, gives itself a good stretch and is ready for more activity.

You and I have resting periods at night and through the day. Doesn't it really appeal to your common sense that we could not do anything wiser than give ourselves a little stretch, a little walk, a little game, or at least some form of exercise.

It will keep our bodies more pliable, more youthful in fact.

Students Take To Woods For Botany Studies At School

Students of the Columbiana County Normal school, under the directions of their teachers are invading the fields and woods this week in search of collection of plants, weeds and tree leaves for study. They have already a large collection.

The Normal school opened last week with 16 young women enrolled who will qualify for teachers. This is two less than the 1922 enrollment, owing to restrictions placed by the state board, wherein several applications were unsuccessful in passing the required examination.

Supt. H. C. Leonard, in charge of the school is well satisfied with the class and the progress already being made.

Ford Motor Company Detroit, Mich.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 26—August closed the summer season for the Ford Motor company with sales of 161,567 cars and trucks, 39,498 more than were delivered at retail during the same month last year, it is just announced.

The remarkable increases which have characterized Ford sales so far this year, bring them to a total of 1,212,557 for the eight months up to September 1, promise to maintain the same proportions during the fall season.

At least, this is indicated by the number of orders on hand at the first of the present month. The new type Ford cars, now in the hands of practically all dealers in the country, are attracting widespread attention.

The tendency toward more noticeable buying is growing more noticeable and in this connection the four-door Ford sedan is gaining in popularity as the family car. This sedan has enjoyed a lively demand ever since its introduction and now, with improvements which have come as a result of the higher radiator, it is more attractive in appearance than ever before. The Ford coupe, which is new in design and with many refinements, is enjoying unusual popularity.

Business and agricultural interests continue to make increasing demands for Ford trucks and sales for August reached a total of 17,441, a gain of 5,147 over August, 1922.

Only 18 Homes in SALEM

THERE IS a shortage of heating equipment this Fall, in spite of the record production of our plants.

In fairness to our customers, we have allotted the entire available supply of ARCOLA outfits (an outfit consists of ARCOLA and an American Radiator for each room) to cities and towns in proportion to their population.

This means very few ARCOLA outfits for this city. While they last, these outfits will be sold at regular low prices (see the dealer sign reproduced below).

Next week is ARCOLA WEEK. Your Heating Contractor will sell his allotment quickly. If you want the comfort of radiator warmth in your home this Winter, ask him today for an ARCOLA estimate.

This sign in your Heating Contractor's window is the mark of the Merchant who sells ARCOLA. ARCOLA warms the room in which it stands and sends its hot-water warmth through pipes to American Radiators in every other room.

Says Allenrhu Surely Conquers Rheumatism

Winchester, Ky., Citizen Cheerfully Recommends This Wonderful Remedy to All Sufferers

His letter follows: "Burns Avenue, Winchester, Ky. I had severe rheumatism for three months; tried several remedies without receiving any benefit whatever. A friend advised me to try ALLENRHU as it had cured him. I bought three bottles from the George Drug Co., this city. When I began taking this medicine I was unable to do any work. I could neither dress myself nor raise my hand to comb my hair. I am now almost well and feel confident this last of the three bottles I am now taking will completely cure me. I can cheerfully recommend this truly wonderful remedy to any rheumatic sufferer." Signed Asa E. Keer.

ALLENRHU has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless. Druggists guarantee the first pint bottle to show appreciable results or money back in every instance. All druggists can supply you.

"Leaving here I'll be headed south in the direction whence I left you. If the fates favor me, I'll have the pleasure of telling you personally, if I tell you. This is my farewell against me, some one else no doubt better."

The chief reason for leaving was the shortage of food, Maurer wrote. "There is not adequate food for all, there being but ten 20-pound cases of hard bread and three cakes of seal oil to last until next summer," he wrote.

Mrs. Zetta Bieri, Mrs. I. L. Moore, and Mrs. C. T. Collins and little son Keith, of Alliance, were guests of Mrs. Ed. Reichenbach Monday afternoon.

The services at the Lutheran church on Sunday were of an especially pleasing nature. A short rally day program was given during Sunday school. The pastor Rev. H. N. Thompson delivered a splendid harvest home sermon afterward. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit, vegetables and grain. A bounteous dinner was served in the basement and at the afternoon, service an inspiring address was delivered by I. F. Mellinger of Leetonia.

There will be no preaching services Sunday evening, as Rev. and Mrs. Thompson left Monday for their former home at Albion, Ind., where they will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sturgeon and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Sturgeon of Alliance, called on Mrs. Ella Somers Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Somers is slightly improved. Her daughter, Mrs. George Shively, of Alliance, is assisting in caring for her.

Mrs. Peter Demmel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Demmel and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wang and daughter, of Alliance, and Byron Saffell, of Homeworth enjoyed the homecoming at the Lutheran church last Sunday.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN

When Mr. Myers of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, stepped into the drug store and asked his druggist for the best medicine for woman's ills, is it any wonder he was handed a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Mrs. L. K. Myers in writing of it says: "I had been weak, run down and had a pain in my left side for a long time, so I could not do my work. Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me in short time so I was able to do all of my household including washing and ironing, and now I feel fine all the time." Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for benefiting 98 women out of every 100 women who take it. It will pay every suffering woman to try it.

Snubury, Mass. — "Longfellow's Wayside Inn," recently purchased by Henry Ford, will be restored to nearly as possible to its original condition. Mr. Ford announces, and it will be opened to the public as a tavern. Longfellow made this old tavern famous. One room will be named Edson room and all those entering the structure will be charged 25 cents.

WOMAN PROTESTS
KILLER'S SENTENCE

Claims Her Husband Should Not Have Died If Negro Doesn't.

Cincinnati, Sept. 28.—The widow of Noble "Red" Holt, who was electrocuted last spring for the murder of a Cincinnati detective, is preparing a protest to Gov. Donahey against the sentence of life imprisonment meted out last week to a negro for the murder of a policeman while resisting arrest.

"I want to remind the governor that I pleaded with him to spare my husband's life for the sake of our two children, and he would not," Mrs. Holt said last night. "The negro is not married and had no family, yet his life is spared while that of my husband is taken."

A juror who held out for a recommendation for mercy for the negro yesterday received an anonymous letter denouncing him for that action.

Youngstown — Grieved because his mother was compelled to work for a living while he is totally disabled due to injuries, George Schlegel, 26, attempted to take his life by drinking poison.

Built by the American People

THE Railroads were not built by railroad men, and they are not owned by railroad men. They were built by the merchants and farmers of the United States, and they are now owned indirectly by all the people of the United States.

The whole splendid system of railroads as it exists today was built with capital, energy and brains furnished by American business men and American farmers with the high purpose of developing the commercial and agricultural interests of the country.

Every one knows that as soon as the iron horse drew his shadow across the land the farms which the Government could scarcely give away suddenly jumped in value to fifty or a hundred dollars an acre, because the railroads had supplied them with the means of development, production and distribution.

When the railroads are making plenty of money, every shop is humming a song of happiness and every farm is growing rich.

Officials of the state health department have started actual work under provisions of the Shepard-Towner maternity and infancy law. Two nurses, Misses Florence C. Thorn and Una E. Frisbie, left for Belmont county, where, in conjunction with the county board of health, they will work for several months to reduce the mortality among mothers and infants.

The state's part in the Shepard-Towner national program is being carried out under Dr. R. C. Leland, chief of the division of hygiene, and Miss V. Lotta Lorimer, chief of the division of public health nursing. Dr. Leland and Dr. John E. Menger, state health director, spent last week in Washington conferring with national health officials on the administration of the Shepard-Towner fund in Ohio.

The work will include general health principles specifically applied to mothers and children of pre-school age.

Results of work in Belmont county and other counties to be chosen soon, will determine the permanent policy of the health department in regard to accepting federal aid and partial supervision in infant work.

State headquarters of Ohio League of Women Voters announces that intensive efforts will be put forth the first two weeks in October to bring to a close a successful sustaining membership campaign. This sustaining membership campaign has been going on all over the country since early summer.

"Believing that the addition of over 20,000,000 women to the electorate is of enormous potential value to the community," says Miss Juliette Sessions, state president, "the League of Women Voters will push its sustaining membership campaign for the purpose of developing these new voters into a force for good government."

"The league this year, as never before," according to its officials, "is offering opportunities for disinterested unpartisan education through citizenship schools, institutes, classes, forums and discussion groups, bulletins and educational material of great variety, and it issues unbiased information about parties, candidates and measures."

The league's big job this fall will be stimulating activity in public affairs, particularly registering and voting.

The budget of the National League of Women Voters is $126,500, while the Ohio league's budget for the year is $13,500, according to Miss Grace Peters, treasurer.

Consideration of the league's interests were made at a meeting of the state executive board and the board of directors in Columbus last week. Department work was carefully mapped out by Mrs. Louise Johnson Bing, chairman of the committee on education and child welfare; Mrs. William E. Henderson, chairman international co-operation to prevent war; Mrs. Dora Sandoe Bachman, chairman uniform laws concerning woman; and Miss Sybil Burton, chairman department of training for citizenship.

"A recent questioning of teachers shows that the school attendance law is being unevenly enforced over the state," asserted Mrs. Bing, who urged all officials of the League of Women Voters to ascertain who their school attendance officers are and whether the law is being enforced in their localities.

The next move in Governor Donahay's efforts to remove George T. Poor of Cincinnati as a member of the state utilities commission appears to be up to Attorney General Crabbe. Donahay recently asked Crabbe whether he could force Poor out, alleging that the commissioner had admitted he owned stock in the Cities Service company. This company, Donahay said, owned a number of Ohio utilities, whose rates were fixed by the commission, and membership in that body of a man who owned such stock was against the statutes on such cases made and provided. Crabbe replied that ownership of stock in a utilities company probably barred the owner from the commission, but failed to state whether he thought Poor could be ousted, or whether stock in the Cities Service company came under the statute.

Replying to the attorney general, Donahay asked that suit be brought to oust Poor, and Crabbe came back a few days later, saying he was willing to bring the suit, but asked the governor to read an opinion recently rendered in Arizona to the effect, he said, that ownership of stock in a holding company was not a bar to membership on the utilities commission. The governor read the opinion, and then, in the last, to date, of the diplomatic notes exchanged, said that regardless of what the Arizona courts said, he wanted a decision from the Ohio courts.

Herman Witter, state director of industrial relations, has called upon T. H. Newhall of the Drexel-Morgan company, Philadelphia, to "personally and promptly take a hand" in an effort to settle the streetcar men's strike at Lima. Newhall, according to Witter, is the "authorized representative of the interests having control of the Lima Street Railway company," and he asks that the Philadelphia man give the matter "immediate and earnest consideration."

Experts Say Consumers Are To Blame For Price Of Coal

Consumers Should Store Supply Of Coal During Summer Months.

Columbus, Sept. 28. — If Ohio consumers would store from two to three months' supply of coal during the summer they would help bring about a great improvement in the coal industry besides effecting an appreciable saving to the family pocketbook.

Such is the conclusion of H. E. Nold, professor of mine engineering, in the Ohio State university, and W. H. Snook, engineer with the state public utilities commission, following a survey of the Ohio coal situation. Their findings have been published recently in a pamphlet "The Ohio Consumers' Coal Problem."

Fluctuation in the bituminous industry, caused by seasonal demands, Prof. Nold and Mr. Snook point out, leads to irregular and intermittent employment of soft coal miners. This in turn is one of the fundamental causes of labor troubles in the industry.

Other major difficulties in the country's fuel situation, they point out, are:

Inadequate transportation facilities at times of peak demand and excess capacity at periods of slack demand.

Overdevelopment of the industry with an annual mine capacity of 750,000,000 tons to supply a normal demand for 500,000,000 tons.

Overmanning of the industry as a result of which about 200,000 more miners are supported by the industry than are necessary to produce the country's coal supply if all are given steady employment.

Failure of the consumer to lay in a considerable portion of his winter's fuel needs during the summer.

Storage of coal by the domestic consumer during the summer months, they contend, would bring about a three-fold result: a decided stabilization of the coal industry, a considerable measure of relief to the railroads by making a more uniform demand on their equipment, and a general reduction in cost of coal to operators with a consequent lowering of the price of coal to the consumers.

Pointing out that the average working year in the bituminous fields of the United States have averaged 215 days or less for the last 20 years, and less than 220 days in Ohio, the investigators say that such a condition breeds unrest and discontent among the miners so employed and develops a seasonal price which materially increases the cost of coal to the consumer, since the price he pays must be high enough to carry the expense of the dull periods and the extra expense of additional equipment necessary to handle the business in rush times.

The economic mining and storage of bituminous coal at the mines, they add, has not been found possible to any great extent. The seasonal nature of the demand for coal therefore makes it necessary for the mining companies to maintain a production capacity adequate to meet a maximum demand in a short time. This excess capacity further involves the employment of a huge labor reserve.

A much better condition, they maintain would be a steady demand for coal and a reduction in the number of miners so that all could work 300 days instead of 200 as at present to produce the country's needs.

Prof. Nold, Dean Hitchcock of the college of engineering at Ohio State, Mr. Snook and E. R. Andrix, of the Columbus Railway, Power & Light Co., constitute a local committee which is investigating steps to be taken to stabilize the coal industry. Through the survey, which is part of a nation-wide undertaking, it is hoped to establish the effect heavier summer storage would have on production costs and the ultimate price to the consumer.

Changes featured in the new Ford Sedan make it a better looking, roomier car.

A higher radiator with a trim apron at its base lends dignity befitting a closed car. The higher hood and enlarged wheel curving gracefully to the dash give a smooth sweep to its body lines, and afford additional leg room for occupants of the front seat.

All body fittings—window regulators, door grips, door latch levers, door lock, dome light—are finished in nickel. The upholstery carries a fine dark line on a soft brown background that does not easily show dust or dirt. Silk window curtains to harmonize for the three rear windows enhance the style of the car and add to the comfort of its passengers. See the new Sedan and other new Ford body styles at our showrooms.
